Models

There are 100's of models to construct yourself, from filtering the distance of a race, runner numbers, track conditions to track location. This is all before applying any of our rating figures. Historic data figures will be your guide to creating these models, but always, please do not over filter. Reach out for any guidance that you may require.

Back Betting Model

The CTPr ratings have continued to perform extremely well over the past few weeks, especially in the $10+ range.

Example system:

CTPr rating = 1

Odds= +$10 on our rating sheet

SP Fig= On pace, Mid field, First start

This above is an example of not over filtering, please be mindful of this when creating your own systems.

Results:
